

Words can't describe the time spent with you. I've loved every minute and every second of the days we've spent together. Meeting you has brightened my life and made me smile daily. Your beauty and happiness bring me so much joy and nonstop smiles. I can't begin to imagine the future won't bring us more unstoppable laughter and more smiling than ever! It is wonderful to say that I know and I am looking forward to what the future holds. You are so incredibly amazing and beautiful! I look forward to a future that has you in my life!
