American Heart Association.

Genetic Testing Tracking Tool for Families

Compiling your family's medical history can provide your doctor and your family members' doctors with important information to help diagnose hereditary transthyretin-mediated amyloidosis (hATTR). This tracking tool is intended to assist patients and caregivers with coordinating genetic testing for their family members.

For more information on genetic testing and counseling, visit: heart.org/TTRgenetictesting.

| Family Member | Email | Phone | Sent Testing Information? |
|---|---|---|---|
| | | | ◯ yes ◯ no |
| | | | ◯ yes ◯ no |
| | | | ◯ yes ◯ no |
| | | | ◯ yes ◯ no |
| | | | ◯ yes ◯ no |
| | | | ◯ yes ◯ no |
| | | | ◯ yes ◯ no |
| | | | ◯ yes ◯ no |
| | | | ◯ yes ◯ no |
| | | | ◯ yes ◯ no |
| | | | ◯ yes ◯ no |
| | | | ◯ yes ◯ no |
| | | | ◯ yes ◯ no |
| | | | ◯ yes ◯ no |
| | | | ◯ yes ◯ no |
| | | | ◯ yes ◯ no |
| | | | ◯ yes ◯ no |

Alnylam® PHARMACEUTICALS

Alnylam Pharmaceuticals proudly sponsors the American Heart Association's Quality Improvement Pilot for hATTR Amyloidosis Patients.

© Copyright 2022 American Heart Association, Inc., a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit. All rights reserved. Unauthorized use prohibited. 3/22 DS18694