

To help ensure all patients with AFib receive guideline-recommended care, the American Heart Association launched an initiative to educate and engage pharmacists, an important but often underrepresented voice in AFib care. The 4Fs of AFib Phase 3 initiative is focused on four patient and clinician concerns impeding guideline-directed anticoagulant therapy, fear of bleeding, falls, frailty and forgetfulness.

Scan the code below to watch the webinar series or listen to the podcasts!

